Are you an R expert? Do you like to share your knowledge and teach others about R on a paid basis? If so, we'd like to hear from you!

R-exercises is a multi-author blog, with currently about 15 (paid) authors. If you'd like to join our team, please send us your CV and proposal, indicating how you'd like to contribute. E.g., you might be interested to prepare new exercise sets, tutorials, data science case studies, tips & tricks, quizzes, or share your knowledge on a specific topic. Please contact us at: han@researchfordecisions.com.
